

Worth Their Weight.

We find veterans the system missed.

INSIDE THIS GUIDE

Contents.

This is the single source of truth for anyone creating materials, communications, or representations of Worth Their Weight. Follow these standards consistently — every piece of collateral we produce tells a veteran what kind of organization we are before they read a single word.

01	Mission & Voice	What we say and how we sound
02	Logo & Mark	The medal, its variants, and rules of use
03	Color Palette	Primary and supporting colors
04	Typography	Source Sans 3, scale, and fallbacks
05	Org Titles & Rank Structure	Field Scout through Founder
06	Programs & Operations	Field Scouts and the referral pipeline
07	Legal & Compliance Language	Required disclaimers and org details
08	Quick Reference	What to say, what never to say

SECTION 01

01 Mission & Voice.

What we say is who we are. Mission and voice are upstream of every piece of collateral, post, and conversation.

Mission Statement

SHORT FORM · HEADERS, BIOS, TIGHT SPACES

“We find veterans the system missed.”

FULL FORM · WEBSITE, DONOR MATERIALS, GRANTS

“We find veterans the system missed and connect them to the people who can help.”

Hero Positioning

The single line that frames the mission for donors, partners, and press:

“The veterans least likely to file are the ones who need their benefits most.”

Voice

Worth Their Weight speaks with directness, warmth, and moral clarity. We do not use jargon, bureaucratic language, or charity-speak. We speak like a person who has seen the problem firsthand and decided to do something about it.

WE ARE	WE ARE NOT
Direct and specific	Vague or corporate
Urgent without alarm	Sensationalist
Warm and human	Clinical or distant
Confident about the mission	Boastful or self-congratulatory
Honest about limitations	Overpromising
Respectful of dignity	Pitying or condescending

SECTION 02

02 Logo & Mark.

The Worth Their Weight mark is a stylized military medal with a five-point star pendant. The medal silhouette reads instantly as honor, service, and recognition.

Primary · Two-Tone Gold

The hero mark. Use on cream, white, and light backgrounds. Website, letterhead, event banners, donor materials.

Single-Color · Black

Use when two-tone gold is not viable: B&W flyers, embroidery, single-color screen print, fax.

Badge · Gold (Light)

Social profile pictures, app icons, sticker mockups. Light variant.

Rules of Use

- Always render in the brand palette — never substitute alternate gold or black tones.
- Never stretch, rotate, recolor, or distort the mark in any way.
- Maintain clear space equal to the height of the star on all sides.
- Minimum size: 32px wide for digital; 0.4" wide for print.
- Source files are SVG (vector master) exported from Kittl. Request from Marguerite.

SECTION 03

03 Color Palette.

The brand palette is built around a warm gold family derived from military honor, anchored by a near-black that reads richer and more intentional than pure black, on a soft cream that is warmer than pure white.

Primary Colors

	Brand Gold HEX #D2A63C · RGB 210, 166, 60 Primary brand color. Logo, accents, key headlines, calls-to-action.
	Near Black HEX #1D1912 · RGB 29, 25, 18 Primary text and dark backgrounds. Warmer and richer than pure black.

Supporting Colors

	Gold Light #EECD5C Secondary gold. Text on dark backgrounds, subtle highlights.		Deep Gold #BB8525 Eyebrow text, labels, gradient endpoints, dividers.
	Cream #F3F3E6 Page backgrounds, callout boxes, alternate rows. Use in place of pure white.

Usage notes. Never use pure black (#000000) — always Near Black. Never use pure white (#FFFFFF) for backgrounds — always Cream. Brand Gold must appear on a light background for readability; on dark backgrounds, switch to Gold Light. Do not introduce new colors.

SECTION 04

04 Typography.

All Worth Their Weight materials use a single typeface family for consistency and clarity. Source Sans 3 reads warmly at body size and powerfully at display size.

Fallback & Sourcing

When Source Sans 3 is not available (Office documents, some email clients), use Arial as the fallback. Specify Arial in all Word and email templates. Never use Times New Roman, Calibri, or Helvetica.

Source Sans 3 is a free Google Font: fonts.google.com/specimen/Source+Sans+3

SECTION 05

05 Org Titles & Rank.

Worth Their Weight uses a military-inspired rank structure that maps to operational scope. These titles are used consistently in all internal and external materials.

TITLE	SCOPE	NOTES
Field Scout	Street / Community	Front-line role. Embeds in community, identifies veterans, builds relationships. Part-time.
Outreach Sergeant	City	Full-time. Splits field outreach with case management and Field Scout coordination.
Company Quartermaster	City	Full-time. Owns grants, fundraising, sponsorship, and event execution at the city level.
Brigade Commander	State	Oversees Outreach Sergeants and Quartermasters across a state. (Future role.)
Division Commander	Region	Multi-state oversight. (Future role.)
Founder & Executive Director	Org-wide	Cory Gold. This is his title in all contexts — no exceptions.

Title rule. Cory Gold's title is Founder & Executive Director in all contexts — website, LinkedIn, email signature, printed collateral, press, and introductions. Earlier titles ("Founder & Commander," "Founder" alone) are superseded and should not appear on any new materials.

SECTION 06

06 Programs & Operations.

Worth Their Weight runs two interlocking programs that turn unsheltered veterans into beneficiaries of the VA system they earned.

PROGRAM 01

Field Scouts

Field Scouts embed in the community — visiting shelters, attending community events, building relationships with local organizations. Their primary mission is to identify veterans and feed them into the Benefits Support & Referral pipeline. Field Scouts are W-2 employees.

PROGRAM 02

Benefits Support & Referral

When a veteran is identified, Worth Their Weight connects them to a VA-accredited VSO partner who handles the disability claims process. Worth Their Weight does not navigate or file claims directly. Our role is identification, relationship-building, warm handoff, and ongoing engagement.

The Referral Pipeline

01Found

Field Scout makes first contact.

02Connected

Warm handoff to VSO partner. Appointment confirmed.

03Filed

VSO submits the claim. Scout maintains contact.

04Won

Benefits approved. Monthly tax-free income flowing.

Field Scouts are accountable for stages 01–02. They receive credit for 03–04 but are not penalized for VA processing time.

SECTION 07

07 Legal Language.

These exact phrases must appear in all printed collateral, the website, and any materials that describe Worth Their Weight services. Do not paraphrase or omit.

Required Disclaimer

“Worth Their Weight is not a law firm and does not provide legal representation before the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. All claims-related services are performed by VA-accredited attorneys, agents, or Veterans Service Organizations.”

Placement: footer of all print collateral, footer of website, programs section of website.

501(c)(3) Status

Worth Their Weight is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, status pending. We have filed for federal tax-exempt status. Once approved, all cash donations will be tax-deductible. Update all materials immediately upon IRS approval.
